ruary 9th, 1878, at the postoffice at

Congress of March 3rd, 1877.

THE ELECTION.

We wish with all the emphasis is we can command to warn our friends throughout the State against over-confidence and inactivity between this time and November 4th. The State-wide Amendment is to be voted on, and State officers are to be elected, both of which are of vital importance to the well being of the state.

We may be sure the liquor interests are not asleep. They are not upon the housetops, proclaiming their plans to the public; they are using the gum-shoe method, knowing that their only hope is to catch the temperance people napping. Various things that have been reported to us are like so many straws, showing the direction of the wind. Certain things that have found their way into the papers could have come from no other headquarters. Let no one think for a moment that the liquor interests have given up and retired from the field.

It is well known that the Central Methodist is not in the poetics. We do not take sides in any party affair. We arguably advise our friends, however, never to lose sight of moral issues in casting a vote. And never take chances when one man is known to be straight, and the other because of past record is doubtful. The triumph of this or that party is a matter of small consequence, but the triumph or defeat of a moral issue is of greatest import. In the present instance, if it openly charged by one of the Louisville dailies, and so far as we are informed it is not denied, that the liquor interests of this city are lining up behind one of the candidates for Governor. If this be true, it is sufficient reason for all temperance advocates to go the other way.

In the state wide contest it is not sufficient that the friends of the measure go to the polls and vote on election day; they must be busy between this time and then remove misunderstandings, stirring up the lukewarm and seeing that the indifferent are aroused. If all do their duty, the amendment will carry by an overwhelming majority. The only danger of its failing is over-confidence and inactivity on the part of its friends.—Ex.

Finishing up what I started about one year ago I had announced in this paper that I will sell my stock of merchandise to quit business and succeeded but could not dispose of my town property but recently I dispo-ed of my property mentioned, so I am now ready to dispose of my entire stock of merchandise which I bought at the low market prices. And now this complete stock of merchandise consisting of Men's and Ladies' ready-to-wear, Shoes, Dry Goods and Groceries. Must go, and go at once regardless of prices and costs.

So I am going to start a sale SATURDAY, Oct. 25th, a sale that is the biggest that has ever been in Webster county or any other county in the state, and this great sale will go on until the entire stock is sold out.
If you want to make your dollars go as far as they did in the olden times, attend this great selling out sale.

We can not possibly quote prices as this is too enormous undertaking.
In fact at the present high market prices ours would sound unbelievable.
We invite one and all to compare our Prices with any other Store Prices or mailorder catalogue. Bring your catalogue with you so you can be convinced yourself. We are right with the statement made above. Thousands of dollars of Winter Goods await you at this great sale.

A man's life — among men!

Reel them off—"Rio" Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.
Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play.
These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.
And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect.
